Duties and Responsibilities of Committee Members:

The College of Massage Therapists of BC serves and protects the public by regulating the profession of massage therapy in British Columbia, in accordance with the duties set out in the Health Professions Act (the Act).

Committees of the College have been established to assist the Board in carrying out its public mandate. Some committees are mandated by the Act, and others have been created as standing committees. Information regarding the mandate and activity of individual committees is available on the College website www.cmtbc.ca and in the Annual Report (available in print and on the College website).

Members of committees are expected to exercise a degree of skill and competence commensurate with their knowledge and experience. They are expected to act in the best interests of the public in making decisions, basing those decisions on facts and reliable information. Members are expected to be honest in all dealings with the College, and to maintain the confidentiality of information received by them in their capacities as committee members. Committee members are also expected to avoid situations that would place them in a conflict of interest with respect to the College, and to declare in advance any potential conflict of interest.

The College has representation from practising registrants on the following committees:

- Patient Relations
- Discipline
- Finance and Audit
- Inquiry
- Quality Assurance
- Registration

Please indicate committees on which you are interested in serving:

1.
2.
3.
